„Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication.“

Leonardo da Vinci

This Renaissance idea was the main inspiration of our new series of handles – to make something that is simple and aesthetic in form, but also done with attention to the detail in mind. And now we are giving our handles to you, to let them beautifully finish your interiors. Rich colors and detailed work will make it something more than just a functional element – we wanted it to be a perfect decoration as well. We hope that this brief presentation will bring a lot of positive impressions, and our door handles will be a welcomed guest in your homes and apartments.
